I would be interested to hear from anyone presently reading this newsletter who can find the time to send an email to me with any comments (any at all, even ribald or critical). I appreciate that many members do not find the time to look through each and every item, but a better understanding of both the reach and impact of this publication would be helpful. Your email may help to indicate the readership numbers.

Also, I would very much appreciate hearing from any club member who may be willing to assist with (or even to completely take over) the compiling of this newsletter.

During the last couple of years I have enjoyed making a contribution to the club and find the 'Fore Info' content interesting and informative, yet I now find the need to pass on the baton, particularly at times when a deadline is looming and there are many other calls upon my time - my email address can be found below...

Andrew Frearson
Club Captain

The transition from Spring-like conditions to high summer has been more than usually rapid this year, but at least we have had a high summer, which is not always the case. The heat is giving problems with fairways but the greens management and staff have done and are doing a magnificent job to keep the course so pristine.

A lot has happened since my last report, this proving to have been the busiest period of the season so far.

The Cross Country Scramble on 26th May was choreographed with his usual panache by Jack Moody and thanks are due to him and the greens staff for setting up the course. Honours went to the very strong team of Grant Thorne, Ben Unsworth, Alan Farrell and Karl Evans with a score of 28.1 net.

Patricia Frearson, Carol Exton and Ian Swann undertook their sponsored swim on 7th June and raised a magnificent £940 through their efforts. Thanks are due to them and to those who supported them.

The Seniors Open was well attended and was won by our own Bob Moore with 40 points. I heard some grumbles about a home player being able to win the overall prize, but I feel the best player should win, bearing in mind there are very good separate prizes for visitors.

Attendance at the Captains Charity Day was down on previous years but was well supported by those who played. My thanks go to those who contributed a total of £810 to the charity fund. The winners on the day were Ashley Wright, Alan Farrell, Malcolm and Jane Scott with an amazing 166 points. I suspect good management of the passports helped.

The Dawn Patrol was organised for us by the Social Committee and a combination of golf and early rising led to hearty consumption of the excellent breakfast prepared by our caterers.

Our County 7's and Gales Hockley teams have sadly been retired by Southampton Municipal and Hayling respectively and we look forward to a more extended season next year. My thanks go to the teams and their captains, Grant Thorne and Charlie House for representing the Club in these county wide competitions.

Results for the other competitions over this period are available on the 'Results' page.

I have deliberately left the most important results until last - the Club Championships.

This is the first year (in recent history) that the Men's and Lady's Championships have run concurrently and over two days. The majority deemed it a great success and we will run the second year of the two year trial next year. Jean will comment more broadly on the Ladies result, suffice it for me to congratulate Kelly Travers once more for defending her title of Ladies Champion with a gross score of 152. Pat Palmer was the winner of the Ladies nett prize with a score of 143.

The Men's Champion this year is William Briggs with scores of 71 and 70 (141) off his 4 handicap - no doubt George will be reviewing this handicap! Congratulations to William. Grant Thorne came second with 145 and last year's Champion, Ben Unsworth was third with 148.

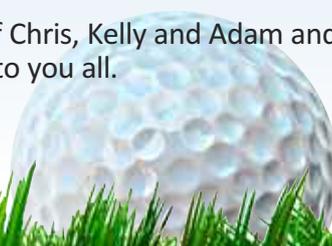

The John Holmes Trophy for the best nett score was won by William Pakenham-walsh with a nett score of 131 (63 & 68) off his 11 handicap. Congratulations William. I envisage a visit from the Match Secretary to William's handicap as well. The runners up in the nett results were William Briggs with a nett 133 and Grant Thorne with a nett 135.

Thank you to everyone who took part and to George and Mandy and their teams for their sterling work in planning and executing an excellent two days of golf.

Of course, it would be impossible to run an event of this nature without an immaculate course to play it on. That is what Steve Privett and his team gave to us - congratulations and thanks to them all.

The day was also made more enjoyable with the culinary input of Chris, Kelly and Adam and their team and with the help of our hard-working and capable bar staff - thanks to you all.

Looking back to this time last year, what a difference a warm, dry spell has made to our golf in June this year. Instead of needing umbrellas to protect us from the rain and wind, we have needed them to protect us from the sun.

June has been packed with matches of different kinds. Our Stoneham Team has put up a valiant effort this month with 2 wins and 2 losses. We now wait to hear whether that will be enough to progress to the quarter finals. Our Friendly Matches have been close if not always successful but our teams fly the flag for the club and we always hear back how much people like coming to Alresford and find us friendly and hospitable. Congratulations to Lynne Cowser and the North Hants Trophy team who won against Meon Valley and now progress to play the Army at the end of July. Well done also to Mandy Overton and Di Peisley who won the Gosport and Stokes Bay Centenary Cup - what a fantastic result, bringing that trophy back to Alresford for the very first time.

Jean Coveyduck
Ladies' Captain

We had a scorching day at Chichester for our Away Day and several of us resorted to buggies. It was an enjoyable day, if expensive on golf balls – one team lost 19 between them – but a good time was had by all and thank you to Linda Glynn, Rosie Hallas and Marion Bruce for organizing this for us. The winners this year with 71 points were Mary Rook, Sue Masser and Jennifer Clelland. We look forward to what they have in store for us next year.

Annie Beal and team organized a splendid Ladies' Open again this year. We had a total of 120 participants from 32 clubs and the overall winners were the team from Royal Winchester. We had wonderful weather and our visitors were full of praise for the standard of the course and quality of our hospitality.

Patricia Frearson completed 50 lengths for her Sponsored Swim alongside Carol Exton who did 51 (one extra by accident!) and Ian Swann who did 60. They raised over £900 for the Captains' Charity and I understand money is still being donated. This is an excellent result.

Other notable events included the Captains' Charity Day and the Dawn Patrol. Both of these were well supported and enjoyed by the participants. The Dawn Patrol in particular was made much more bearable for those of us going out at 5.30 am by the wonderful weather and it was certainly the right time to be playing golf that day. The greens staff were going forward ahead of us hole by hole in preparation and the course looked magnificent. We forget they are out there every day at this hour at this time of year.

Lastly we come to the Championship Weekend. Twenty-four ladies entered for the 2-day Championship and 10 for the one day medal. Thank you ladies for rising to the occasion and putting on such splendid performances. In particular, congratulations to our overall Champion for the 4th year running, playing off a handicap of 1, Kelly Travers, and to Becky Scott, who was runner-up. The Dorothy Coombs Shield for combined nett scores in the bronze division was won by Debbie Wills, and the winner of the Brenda Hedges Trophy, for the silver division, was Pat Palmer. Congratulations to you all.

We now look forward to a host of events and competitions in July so your support for these will be greatly appreciated. I look forward to welcoming many of you to my own Ladies' Captain's Day.

Fore Info

In Match play, a player holes out for a 4. He picks up his opponents ball thinking he already has played 4. His opponent correctly states that he has only played 3 shots and had a putt for a half. What is the ruling?

- A) The Hole is halved as the player is deemed to have conceded his opponents putt.
- B) The player incurs a one stroke penalty, the ball should be replaced and his Opponent now has a putt to win the hole.
- C) Since the player incurred a penalty, the hole is automatically halved.

Club Championships

For the most part I think we can consider the new 2 day format with an integrated field of men and ladies as a success. The entry for both Championships was increased from last year with 59 men and 26 ladies, so the objective of attracting a larger entry was achieved. We were fortunate with the weather in that it was dry throughout and the temperature was pleasant for playing golf – the high temperatures of the previous weekend of 17/18th June could have presented many problems. There was a good atmosphere round the club over the weekend with players and members sitting out on the terrace to watch the action on the 18th and many remaining on Sunday for the presentation of prizes.

Mandy and I would like to thank all the Committee members and others who helped with the preparation of and running of the competitions over the 2 days – in particular, David Robertson, Richard Calton, David Maskery, Chris Chant, Mary Rook, Lyn Travers and Malcolm Scott plus the starters John Dillon, Geoff Jenkins, Jennifer Clelland, Jean Coveyduck, Peter Spreadbury and Andrew Frearson. The Greenstaff are also to be commended for the excellent condition of the course.

Lastly, I would like to thank all the players who entered. Everyone turned up on time, filled in their score cards correctly and legibly (mostly), and, perhaps one of the key factors in the success of the weekend, everyone played at a good pace with every group completing their round within the 4¼ hour allowance with many finishing in 3¾ hours – exactly what we would expect for a 3-ball group. Well done and thank to you all.

Details of all the winners and results can be found in the Captains' reports and in the Results section.

Geoff Procter
Vets' Captain

The programme of Vets interclub matches continues as planned and by the end of July we will have played 28 of our 39 'summer season' games. The dress code at our away matches is turning out to be equally split between 'smart casual' and 'jacket & tie'. However, I suspect over the next couple of seasons more clubs will adopt smart casual attire for the post match meal.

The first round of the Vets Championship took place on the 16th June, with the second round planned for the 7th July.

On the 2nd June the annual match between the Vets and Juniors took place and I am happy to say that the future standard of golf at Alresford is in the safe hands of our juniors and they are all a credit to their parents and their golf coaches.

On this occasion the Vets were soundly beaten and it turned out to be a bit like a competition between young lions and a lioness versus old donkeys.

The distance some of our juniors can hit the ball is impressive, with a number of our par 4 holes being within their driving range. Several of the juniors recorded a gross score of 69.

As an amusing aside, I was told that during the match one of our Vets hit a less than perfect chip shot, and one of the younger junior opponents was heard to exclaim, "Oh gee that sucks!" So overall we were outplayed, but had fun.

HALFWAY REFRESHMENTS

On Saturday and Sunday mornings available from 8.30am MANCOM and BAR & CATERING Committees have agreed a 3 month trial starting in May for halfway refreshments to be available for players. This will be at normal Weekends only (plus potentially busy society days) but NOT the Championship weekend.

Members will be permitted to contact the Kitchen via their mobile telephone from the 8th Tee and place an order from a limited menu which will be displayed at this point. The order will be 'cash sales' only and will be delivered to the 10th tee where there will be a picnic table and bin provided. Payment must be made at this stage.

Should a group order food and there is a group playing immediately behind them not ordering food, then they MUST permit that group to play through. Food should be consumed at the 10th tee.

It should be stressed that this is a trial only at this stage and we will be monitoring usage and any effects that this has on 'pace of play' and litter on the course.

We are looking for a Gardener to help keep the clubhouse surrounds and entrance, tidy and 'blooming' over the summer.

If any member currently has or knows of a reliable Gardener who is interested in a couple of hours a week at the club during the summer, please speak to the Secretary.

Thank You.

PACE OF PLAY (Part 2) or Observations from the Buggy.

Whilst marshalling at the Club Championships last weekend it was interesting to observe the various playing mannerisms and habits of the competitors. Most of the competitors have been members of the club or other clubs for a considerable period of time and all play regular competition golf. All of whom are very familiar with the etiquette of the game but people do strange things when under stressful conditions.

The trial of having a combined Club Championship caused a few mumbblings and concerns for some members. We never know if a new way of doing something is going to be better or simply cause us more problems in the long run. Whatever happens, the status quo is disturbed and people are always uneasy about this. Ultimately, we play golf for the enjoyment, a personal challenge and companionship. If we can find a way of encouraging more people to play in competitive golf then the club will be the stronger for it.

Firstly, all players should be congratulated on the pace of play at the Championships. Whether it was because it was over two days and the players were not as tired in Rd 2 or, simply, because they were aware of the need to keep play moving for such a big field. Whichever, it worked and the average time for groups to complete their round was perfectly acceptable.

The Ladies groups were not slower than the men's groups as had quietly been suggested. Indeed, on the whole, I observed fewer groups of Ladies experiencing trouble around the course than men! If a lady hit a wayward drive or into thick rough they generally played a provisional ball immediately and/or declared a lost ball and moved on. The rest of us are stubborn (it's in our DNA) and we find it difficult to believe that we could have lost a ball.

"How hard can it be to find it? I saw it go in here!"
...meanwhile, the clock is ticking and the group behind are approaching.

The mannequin challenge reared its head on both the tees, fairways and greens. Now I think I can be guilty of this (or so my Wife says) but observing statuesque figures hovering clubs near to balls waiting for that trigger to set them off is quite unbelievable. It certainly made me think about the time I take to go through my routine and play a shot. Perhaps we should all address the ball, touch the club down on the ground behind it and then count to ten, starting the swing on 8 and hitting the ball on 10? It might be the oomph we all need.

Choosing clubs – is this the club or that one? Have a waggle, no walk back to my bag and pick another... have a think. No, I was right first time!

On the green – Why does the person who putts out first not take responsibility for the flag and replacing it after the last putt? I lost count of the number of times that the person putting out last was left to retrieve his/her ball and then walk over to the flag which had been removed and left lying on the green, replace it in the hole before finally walking off the green. Playing partners departed sometime ago. Oh and now where did I leave my trolley? Oh yes its round the other side of the green!

Dilly Dallying on the tee – groups walk to the next tee, mark their cards, have a drink, eat some chocolate, chat... all very sociable. First player decides to go, 'is it me?' Yes, ok. Now what club shall I take? The group in front is now on the green well out of range. Player 1 tees off and the process begins again. What club shall I hit? etc, etc. By the time all 3 players have hit shots the green has cleared and the gap to the group in front has grown. The group behind is now on the green and finishing off and they are now worrying that you have only just teed off!

The miracle shot – because it's the Championship, there must be a mind-set that comes over players making them think they must play shots they have never played or dreamt of playing before - out of bushes, on one knee and through hedges. Normally a chip out sideways and drop just the 1 or 2 shots in the weekend stableford / medal, but no, I can thread a low 5 iron under that branch and just left of the tree and still carry the bunker face. No! 5 minutes later after flushing the tree, searching again for the rebound, chipping out of the leaves and then again out sideways, onto the green and 2 more putts both the score and the time has racked up.

Now I am not accusing anyone in particular of bad or purposeful slow play and I appreciate that everyone wants to concentrate on Club Championships weekend and do the best they possibly can. It's therefore understandable and acceptable to a certain extent to play slower and more deliberately than you would normally. My point is that most of us play better and make better decisions on our game when we are relaxed - I have already said that golf is a social activity, but a lot of these 'slow play' traits are normal for us all in social golf as well and a few seconds saved here and there will probably not make any difference to our own game but may help our playing partners game and the groups behind's time a little more bearable. To be mindful of where we are taking too long or possibly delaying the group behind is all most golfers want.

Anyway, I enjoyed my time out on the course watching some good golf and assisting you all (some more often than others) so thank you for playing in the Championship Weekend.

Flaming June lived up to its reputation this year! Record temperatures and ideal golfing conditions for the bulk of the month. The course has held up well, although we do now have some brown patches on fairways. Our green keepers are concerned about our new trees on the 5th and 9th fairways and are watering these daily.

The Club Championship weekend was also blessed by fair weather and the course looked wonderful and played tough but fair. Thanks and congratulations are again due to Steve and his team who worked hard and long to present the course at its very best.

You may have noticed slight damage to the 10th green caused by a diesel leak. This will recover in a few days and will not affect the roll of the ball. We are seeing lots of pitch marks on the greens caused by players not fixing correctly or not at all. Should you be unsure of the correct way to repair pitchmarks, please ask any of the green staff who will be pleased to show how do this properly.

I am pleased to report that the long awaited 10 Year Course Plan has now been approved by ManCom and is available to view on the club website. This working document will be reviewed and updated yearly. It outlines the proposed work on the course over the next 10 years and the winter projects identified for the next 2 years. You will see that we have concentrated on two weak areas of the course, namely tees and bunkers. We have two main issues with tees on our course. Some are uneven and many are smaller than would be ideal. Bunkers are the most criticised part of our course (as with the majority of British courses!). They are also the most expensive areas of the course to maintain. We plan to use a new bunker lining in our proposed work this winter. This product has been installed on many courses around the country with very high approval from members and green keepers alike. You may find the following link interesting! <http://www.usga.org/content/usga/home-page/course-care/regional-updates/west-region/2017/five-reasons-why-bunkers-are-not-consistent.html>

During July, we expect to publish on the website Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's) which will be a reference point for information around the course management and plans. Great credit to Jon Capp who has driven this, supported by Malcolm and Steve.

We hope you all enjoy great golfing conditions during July!

100 Club Salver and Evening Meal – Friday 4th August

This mixed Stableford competition is open to all members of the 100 Club. There is no entry fee and, since this is primarily a social event, the competition is not a qualifying round for handicap purposes. Please arrange your own playing groups and tee-times, but remember that the evening meal will be served at 7:30pm so make sure you'll be finished by then. On the day, you must sign-in at the Pro's Shop before you play to register your entry to the competition and to receive your free ball for participating. There are prizes for the top 3 scores and the winner will also receive the magnificent 100 Club Salver to hold for a year.

Men will play off the Yellow tees; and Ladies from the Red tees. To equalise the scoring, ladies will add 2 strokes to their handicaps and play from their own card. Completed cards should be put into the box in the Entrance Hall.

All members whether they have played or not are invited to attend the evening meal during which the prize winners will be announced. The two course meal with coffee will cost £16 per person and will start promptly at 7:30pm. Please add your name to the sign-up sheet which will be on the Social notice board. Payments in advance to the office would be appreciated; cheques should be made out to Alresford Golf Club 100 Club.

If you need a playing partner and aren't sure of who is in the 100 Club, contact George Clelland by email: george.clelland@btinternet.com or or telephone: 01962 735008 call in to the Secretary's office.

Auction of Promises

An Auction of Promises evening is being planned for October this year. The aim of the evening will be to raise funds to support the Captains' charity and a Club project (to be agreed by the Captains). Arrangements for the evening are still in the early planning stages and we are looking for members' help and generosity. Are you able, or know of someone who may be willing, to donate? We are looking for a wide range of promises that can be auctioned on the evening. As an example, Andrew & Patricia Frearson have already secured a week in a luxury villa in Puglia, Italy to be auctioned'. Please put your thinking caps on, and contact me by email, if you can offer any items, services or experiences for the auction.

Many thanks to those that have already come forward with Promises, however we are still looking for more offers.
