

How it Works

- All bidders will be asked to register before bidding commences. Bidding will be by lot number. All Bidders will be asked to register. On the evening bidding will be by allocated paddle number.
- Consider which items that you would like to bid on – you can bid on as many as you wish.
- The 'My Bid Box' within the brochure is for you only to note down when and how much you intend to bid, so you do not forget in all the excitement!
- Silent Auction Items - Please complete a 'bid slip' for each item you wish to bid on. This is a closed bid system so please put down the highest amount you would be willing to pay to give yourself the best chance of winning and to help us raise as much as possible.
- Clipboard bids – Please complete the sheet in the folder(s) with your details and bid. Please remember to regularly revisit the folder(s) to maximise your chance of winning – you may bid more than once.
- Live & Stand Up Auction –
  - Some items will be sold by live auction, the winning bidder(s) will be identified by their paddle numbers so make sure that you have your paddle with you when bidding.

Absentee bids may be made by:

- Telephone – you may phone into the auction to bid on specific lots being sold by live auction, this must be arranged by email to robert@teammates.org.uk, at least 48 hours in advance of the auction.
- Email – Email your maximum bid for specific lots to robert@teammates.org.uk Email bids will close 36 hours in advance of the auction. The auctioneer will bid for you as if you are in the room. You may be outbid, in which case the auctioneer will not bid for you in excess of your maximum bid. You may win the an auction at a lower price than your maximum bid if other bidders fall away before your maximum bid is reached.

- To maximise the benefit, there are multiples available of some items.
- Some items have a reserve price – only bids that meet the reserve (or higher) will be accepted. If the reserve is not reached the item will be withdrawn.
- On a successful bid, you will be asked to make payment in full. Payment can be made by cash, cheque or credit card (additional 2.5% charge applies) or bank transfer. Cheques to be made payable to 'Alresford Golf Club'. Bank Transfer must be made by close of business on Monday 23rd October 2017.
- Buyers should collect their lots at the end of the auction or as soon as possible thereafter. If it is a Promise, the donor's contact details will be given. It is the buyer's responsibility to make contact.
- All statements contained in the brochure are statements of opinion and are not to be taken as, or implied, statements or representations of fact.
- All statements contained in the brochure as to any lot are made without responsibility on the part of the vendors, the auctioneers, or Alresford Golf Club.
- All proceeds will be split between the Captains' Charity – Prostate Cancer and Alresford Golf Club.

We hope you will be able to come along and make your bids at what promises to be a fun evening.

Lot 101

A Week's stay in a luxury villa in Southern Italy

Trulli di Bouganville, Virbo, near Monopoli, Puglia

A week's stay at a luxury villa in southern Italy with 3 double bedrooms, 2 en-suite and a third family bathroom, so would suit two to three couples or a family.

Access via Bari or Brindisi airports, approximately three quarters of an hour by car from either.

The villa is available end September and October and March/April, the better time being September/October when the weather is better and the house benefits from having been lived in all the season.

For the best viewing, use the link:

Lot 102

A week's stay in a French Farmhouse in Charente

A week's stay in a French Country Farmhouse which consists of two separate houses within the same barnyard walls. One has a double and a twin bedroom (both with their own bath/shower rooms) the other has a double, twin and single room with shared bathroom. So, there is a maximum occupancy of 9 people. Both have their own kitchens/dining rooms and their own sitting rooms with entertainment facilities. There is also a small snooker room in one house.

Outside there is a pool, a courtyard ideal for eating out, patio overlooking the pool and facing west for nice evenings, and a pond area with decking and up lighting, all set in orchards and flower meadows. It is a mile outside a small town with a bar, renaissance chateau, small shop. St Jean D'Angely is about 20 minutes with great restaurants and a market twice a week. We recommend flying to La Rochelle and hiring a car – it's about 45 minutes inland.
